

Office of the Mayor
City of Desert Hot Springs, California

PROCLAMATION

Whereas, The City of Desert Hot Springs honors the Inland Empire Branch of the International Dyslexia Association and all organizations which provide services for learners who struggle; and

Whereas, these nonprofit organizations render support to families experiencing significant literacy issues as a result of a dyslexic pattern in one or more family members; and

Whereas, we are indebted to the Inland Empire Branch of the International Dyslexia Association and all its volunteers who stand ready to share their knowledge, experience, and energy to provide resource information and service to our community; and

Whereas, we support the efforts of the Inland Empire Branch and its "kick-off" workshop on September 24, 2005, designed to provide teachers and parents with information regarding effective teaching; and

Whereas, it is a local goal of interested citizens to raise awareness levels of understanding within the general community, and to seek support for dyslexics in the area of educational and life skills; and

Now, Therefore, by the power vested in me as Mayor of the City of Desert Hot Springs and on behalf of the City Council and our entire community, I hereby proclaim

OCTOBER 2005 DYSLEXIA AWARENESS MONTH

Dated this twentieth day of September, 2005.

Attest:

Rossie Stobbs, City Clerk

Matt Weyuker, Mayor
